Data for investor action on modern slavery

Catalogue of resources

June 2021

Authors: Florian Ostmann, Alex Harris (The Alan Turing Institute), Nyasha Weinberg, Irene Pietropaoli, Lise Smit (Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law)

Research by

The research report Data for Investor Action on Modern Slavery: A Landscape Analysis, by Florian Ostmann, Alex Harris (The Alan Turing Institute), Nyasha Weinberg, Irene Pietropaoli, Lise Smit (Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law) identified several types of data that are potentially relevant for investors looking to take action on modern slavery.

This document is a catalogue of existing resources related to these types of data identified by the research. It also sets out an overview of stakeholder initiatives with relevance to corporate conduct in relation to modern slavery. All weblinks contained in this document are correct as of June 2021. The full research report can be found at modernslaverypec.org/resources/investors-data. The research was funded by the Modern Slavery and Human Rights Policy and Evidence Centre (Modern Slavery PEC). The views expressed in this report are those of the authors and not necessarily of the Modern Slavery PEC.

Led by the Bingham Centre

The Modern Slavery and Human Rights Policy and Evidence Centre was created by the investment of public funding to enhance understanding of modern slavery and transform the effectiveness of law and policies designed to overcome it. With high quality research it commissions at its heart, the Centre brings together academics, policymakers, businesses, civil society, survivors and the public on a scale not seen before in the UK to collaborate on solving this global challenge.

The Centre is a consortium of six academic organisations led by the Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law and is funded by the Art and Humanities Research Council on behalf of UK Research and Innovation (UKRI).

Our partners:

The Alan Turing Institute

The Modern Slavery and Human Rights Policy and Evidence Centre is funded and actively supported by the Arts and Humanities Research Council (AHRC), part of UK Research and Innovation (UKRI), from the Strategic Priorities Fund.
