

Privacy Notice Modern Slavery PEC Conference 2026

Data protection

In the course of completing this registration form, you have provided information about yourself ('personal data'). We (the University of Oxford) are the 'data controller' for this information, which means we decide how to use it and are responsible for looking after it in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation and associated data protection legislation.

How we use your data

We will use your data to: register you for the Modern Slavery PEC Conference 2026, manage logistics, and communicate with you about it. We may also use anonymised data to help plan future events and understand participant demographics.

We need to process your data to meet our legitimate interests in operating this event, including: registering you and managing attendance; communicating event details and updates; catering for dietary and accessibility requirements; using anonymised role and organisation data to plan future events and understand participant demographics.

If you choose to join our mailing list, we will process your data for this purpose. We will only use your details to provide you with information and updates such as email newsletters, event listings, requests to participate in our research, or information relating to the work being undertaken by or in collaboration with the Modern Slavery PEC. We do this only where you have specifically indicated that you consent to receive such communications. We will not provide your data to any other businesses so they can use it for marketing purposes. You can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us at pec.office@humanities.ox.ac.uk. In this event, we will stop any processing as soon as we can. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before your withdrawal of consent.

We will only use your data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another related reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your data for an unrelated purpose, we will seek your consent to use it for that new purpose.

Who has access to your data?

Access to your data within the University will be provided to those who need to view it as part of their work in carrying out the purposes described above.

We may share your data with companies who provide services to us, such as for venue management, catering, and other suppliers necessary to run the event. These companies are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your data in line with our policies. We do not allow them to use your data for their own purposes. We permit them to process your data only for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

Retaining your data

We will only retain your data for as long as we need it to meet our purposes, including any relating to legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

Security

Your data will be held securely in accordance with the University's policies and procedures. Further information is available on the University's Information Security website.

Where we store and use your data

We store and use your data on University premises in both a manual and electronic form.

Your rights

Information on your rights in relation to your personal data are explained here.

Contact

If you wish to raise any queries or concerns about our use of your data, please contact us at pec.office@humanities.ox.ac.uk.
